

Every Penny Counts

How to Save $ & Organize Your Finances

Tues., May 25, 7:00-8:00 pm

DCL Friends Meeting Room, DeWitt Community Library, ShoppingTown Mall, Entrance #3, 3649 Erie Blvd. East, DeWitt

Me'Shae Brooks Rolling, a financial literacy instructor at Syracuse University's South Side Innovation Center and in the local community will speak on the following topics:

- Develop a personalized budget
- Become financially organized
- How to be financially astute when buying a car
- Protect yourself against Identity & Cyber Theft

A book-signing of her latest title, "How to Save $ & Organize Your Finances," follows the talk.

About the speaker:

Me'Shae Brooks-Rolling is the author of "How To Save Money & Organize Your Finances," a certified FDIC Money Smart Trainer, and is a financial literacy instructor at Syracuse University. She is frequently invited to appear on radio and television shows addressing the topic of financial literacy education, and was recently quoted in Consumer Reports Magazine on saving and budgeting. She was a contributing writer to the Syracuse Post-Standard MoneyWise series in January, and is the business and finance columnist for the CNY Latino newspaper and the CNY Good News paper.

rollingenterprises.com

Event Registration:

At the library. Call 446-3578. Register from www.dewlib.org

